

I am under the impression the FCC governs our public airwaves. How is it that you can allow one corporation's political agenda to run rampant?